Dear [Recipient],

It has come to our attention that an individual residing in your unit may be in violation of the Governing Documents. This is a friendly reminder that your unit is subject to certain restrictions. Please be advised that future notices will be sent in the form of official violations, which may result in fines that increase with recurrence.

[ViolationActionRequired]

Condominium Document Provisions Violated: Your actions or inactions described above violate the provisions of the Governing Documents, as follows: [CCRCode]

[CCRTxt]

The enclosed violation response form provides you with the opportunity to communicate compliance, dispute the violation or request a hearing with the Board of Directors. If no response is received, a hearing will be held at the next meeting of the Board where your nonattendance will constitute in a default hearing.

We appreciate your anticipated cooperation in rectifying the issue above. Within 14 days, please email [ManagerEmail] and let us know whether the issue has been addressed, that you have a plan to address it or that you dispute the violation. Please be advised that after violation closure, there may be a 12-month monitored period in which another offense regarding this type of violation will result in the violation being reopened and automatically progressed to the next step in the violation process.

Any discussion of this violation must be done in writing through [ManagerEmail].

It is the responsibility of the landlord to inform and resolve any violations with their tenant.

Sincerely,
In Rhodes Management Inc.
